

ILSTON COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Stress management policy Final 26 July 2023

Introduction

The Community Council is committed to protecting the health, safety and welfare of its employees. Workplace stress is a health and safety issue and the importance of identifying and reducing the causes is acknowledged.

The policy applies to all employees and those designated as line managers are responsible for the implementation of the policy and the Community Council is responsible for providing the necessary resources.

Note that ICC, at the time of preparing this policy, has a single employee, the Clerk, with the Chairperson representing their Line Manager.

Definition of stress

The Health and Safety Executive defines stress as 'the adverse reaction people have to excessive pressure or other types of demand placed on them'. This makes an important distinction between pressure, which can be a positive state if managed correctly, and stress which can be detrimental to health.

The effects of long-term stress can be seen in physical, intellectual, emotional and behavioural signs.

Physical signs	Intellectual signs
Headaches	Difficulty in making decisions
Crying	Inability to concentrate
Tension	Worrying
Indigestion	Bad dreams
Breathlessness	Impaired judgement
Nausea (feeling sick)	Making mistakes
Tiredness/can't relax	Persistent negative thoughts
Weight gain/loss
Fainting
Excessive sweating
Frequent colds, flu, other infections
Constipation/diarrhoea
Palpitations

Emotional signs	Behavioural signs
Anger Irritability Moodiness Tension Sensitivity to criticism Drained, no enthusiasm Job dissatisfaction Reduced self-esteem Loss of confidence	Restlessness Disturbed sleep/insomnia Drinking more alcohol Smoking more Not looking after oneself Lying to cover up mistakes Reckless driving Anti-social behaviour Reduced sex drive
